

River Valley Child Development Services

COVID Exclusion Practice

Effective: November 1, 2020

River Valley Child Development Services, hereinafter referred to as RVCDS, expects its employees to understand the following, as it relates to COVID-19:

1. If you had close contact with a person who has COVID-19 or have been informed of a direct exposure to COVID-19
  - Notify your director as soon as possible
  - You will be excluded from in person work site or in person work activities for 14 days after your last contact
2. If you tested positive for COVID-19
  - Notify your director as soon as possible
  - You will be excluded from in person work site or in person work activities for 14 days after you tested positive